This is a public notice issued pursuant to Section 30 of the Government Securities Act.

Notification under Section 309B(1) of the Securities and Futures Act (SFA):

Singapore Government Treasury Bills are classified as prescribed capital markets products and Excluded Investment Products as defined in MAS Notice SFA 04-N12 and MAS Notice FAA-N16.

Please note that this SGS issue is a "Qualifying Debt Security" ("QDS") eligible for the tax incentives approved by the Minister for Finance for QDS issued up till 31 December 2023. More information on the tax concessions under the QDS scheme is available at <http://www.sgs.gov.sg/The-SGS-Market/Tax.aspx>.

Tax exemption shall not apply on interest, discount, break cost, prepayment fee or redemption premium derived from QDS issued up till 31st December 2023 by any non-resident investor who carries on any operation in Singapore through a permanent establishment in Singapore, if the debt securities are purchased using funds from Singapore operations. Persons who are not exempted from tax are required to declare their income received from the debt securities in their income tax returns.

² Individual investors can submit bids for SGS through selected banks' ATMs and internet banking portals. Individual investors should check with their banks on the exact closing date for SGS application through these channels.
